

Failing to ensure that your business is tax efficient and compliant can have huge financial implications. Fitzgerald and Law advise and support you on all aspects of taxation, keeping you up to date with current developments and liaising with HM Revenue & Customs on your behalf.

Tax Advisory

"We manage all your routine and special tax obligations so you can get on with managing your business."

Gabriel Parrish

Making sure your business is tax compliant is about much more than filing the necessary returns.

F&L provide personalised and expert tax advice and support for all your tax needs - from routine tax compliance to managing VAT control visits and Corporate tax enquiries.

We will minimise your tax liabilities and mitigate risk, taking the uncertainty out of tax issues as diverse as capital gains, inheritance tax, mergers and acquisitions, payroll and share and stock options.

We have a wealth of experience in a diverse range of businesses and this enables us to see tax issues from your perspective and offer you jargon-free solutions that you can understand.

Due to our integrated service, we can explore all the tax implications for your business and offer you appropriate advice – from legal requirements to HR and employee benefits.
